College (Autonomous), Tiruchirappalli.

Dr.C.Paramasivan, Assistant Professor of Commerce, Convener of the programme & Coordinator, Training and Placement Cell, Periyar E.V.R. College (Autonomous), Tiruchirappalli had welcomes the chief guest, resource persons, faculty members and participants of the training programme from various departments of the college. He noticed that, Advocates and Professors were invited as the resource persons for the technical sessions. He highlights the importance of the Training Programme and the thanks to the National Human Rights Commission for continuous assistance to organize the programme.

Dr. I. Julie, Principal, Periyar E.V.R. College (Autonomous), Tiruchirappalli presided over the presidential address in the inaugural session of the One day Basic Training Programme on Human Rights in association with District Legal Services Authority, Tiruchirappalli. She advised the participants to utilize this training programme which will be helpful to gain more knowledge about the Human Rights and to protect women and children from violence. She also quoted the various promotional activities and awareness cum training programmes done by National Human Rights Commission, New Delhi.

In the first technical session of the training programme, Dr. S. Murugesan, Assistant Professor of Law, Government Law College, Tiruchirappalli-23 has given a comprehensive introduction about the Human Rights with legal and constitutional aspects. He specified a lot of real time examples from contemporary issues and judgements given to them. He quotes many day to day problems faced by the students' community and the favourable solutions to avoid them. He also highlighted the roles and responsibilities of the students to protect the rights which explore the human values leading to political and economic empowerment of the human beings.

In the second technical session, Mr. N. Rajeswaran, M.A., B.L., Advocate, Tiruchirappalli, has delivered a lecture about Human Rights Institutions in India. He addressed the constitutional setup of the human rights institutions in India, particularly he explained about the roles and functions of national human rights commission, state human rights commission, national legal services authority, state legal services authority and district legal services authority. He cited that human rights are not static and new rights are recognized and enforced from time to time.

In the third technical session, Mrs.R.Kowsalya, B.A., B.L., Advocate, Tiruchirappalli has mesmerised the participants and enlightened the participants with rights of women and children. She pointed out the present status of women and children in the society and how they were treated in the earlier periods, particularly in work place and in family. She also stressed the participants to remove the gender inequalities from the society by the way of creating awareness and behavioural activities for a peaceful culture.

On the final session of the day was started with the perceptive speech by Mrs. Dr.K.Suriyan, Ph.D, Professor & Head, Department of Sociology, Bharathidasan University, Tiruchirappalli has delivered a key note address on the rights of vulnerable groups. He pointed out the various issues and cases regarding vulnerable groups such as dalits, women, transgender, marginalised people and minorities. He mentioned some of the popular issues and judgements regarding vulnerable groups in India as well as in Tamil Nadu. Students were actively interacted and raised many questions about the human rights issues and institutional assistance.

In the valediction session, Dr.B.Kannan, Assistant Professor of Commerce, Periyar E.V.R. College, Tiruchirappalli has acknowledged the resource persons, faculty members and the participants of the training programme in a successful manner. Finally, vote of thanks given by the Dr.R.Ramji, Ph.D. Assistant Professor of Commerce and coordinator of legal literacy club, Periyar E.V.R. College (Autonomous) Tiruchirappalli -23.
