CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development

1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which are reflected in Programme Outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) of the various Programmes offered by the Institution.

Curriculum design is the process of making curriculum that aligns with the goals, objectives, and learning. It is achieved by creating an entirely new curriculum or making changes to an existing one so as to meet the current requirement of students taking the course.

The Academic council and the Board of studies periodically revise, modify, revamp and update the syllabus according to the local, national, regional and global needs of the students.

Language papers are included in Part I and Part II of the under graduate curriculum to improve the communication skills of students. On the completion of Part III courses, the students acquire concrete knowledge of their core subject and two allied subjects. The additional skills needed to excel in competitive examinations of their core subject are included in Part IV of the curriculum of the UG students. The moral, social, environmental and gender issues are covered in the courses of Part V. On the successful completion of their course, the students become socially responsible citizens with necessary employability skills in their core subject.

By completing the project work in the post graduate programmes, the students develop their skills in planning, critical thinking, processing, analyzing ideas and techniques and developing them into beneficial conclusion.

1.3.1 - Institution integrates cross-cutting issues relevant to Professional Ethics, Gender, Human Values, Environment and Sustainability, and Human Values into the curriculum

Institution integrates cross-cutting issues relevant to professional ethics, gender, human values, environment and sustainability and human values into the curriculum. The enrichment of curriculum means giving it a greater value, by enlivening the overall education process. Extension activities provide students Social awareness beyond their main course.

Gender and Human Values:

A course on gender equality and value education are included in all the UG courses which enable the students to be aware of gender sensitive issues. A webinar on gender sensitization is organized by IQAC. Women empowerment cell organized a webinar on women empowerment to celebrate women's day. The activities organized by NSS, NCC, YRC and WEC enrich the social responsibility of the students.. The students are Involved in village adoption program through NSS to enhance their capacities.

Environment and Sustainability:

A course on environment studies is included in all the UG curriculum.

With the able leadership, sponsor and advise received from the Old Students Association and Retired Professors, the gardens are properly maintained and nurtured. The pond in it helps to sustain the water level in and around the garden. More than 1000 saplings has been planted all over the campus. Most importantly palm seeds are collected by Dr.Kasi Mariappan,preserved, sprouted and planted with a fore sight to preserve it from extinction

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses students' learning levels and organises special programmes for both slow and advanced learners.

The college conducts three assessment test every semester and the same is used for CIA (Continuous Internal Assessment). Performance of students based on the marks obtained by them is used to identify slow learners and advanced learners.

Special Programs for slow learners:

Slow learners are counselled by their class tutors and respective HODs. The hurdles that hinder them to excel in their field are identified and remedial measures are taken accordingly. Repeated tests and assignments are given to enhance their learning skills. Subject teachers give them specific care to improve their learning abilities and extra coaching is provided depending upon the cases.

Special Programs for advanced learners:

Advanced learners are encouraged by arranging guest and invited lectures to expand their horizon. They are advised suitably to prepare them to get into institutions of national eminence. Coaching in career guidance is also provided to them. Students are coached to appear for service commission examination and special emphasis is given to become entrepreneurs. Toppers of each class and the university rank holders are awarded with certificates and prizes in the college day function. The college library awards Best Library user award best each year to motivate the reading habit of the students.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student-centric methods such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem-solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences:

In order to ensure learning as a pleasant experience, students are encouraged to take active participation in every single pace of teaching. Discussions are encouraged during class hours. students feedback is obtained to ensure their participation in farming the curriculum itself. While every lab exercise is a hands on session for them they are encouraged to take up mini Projects, Projects, Participate in seminars, conferences, workshops, etc. for experimental learning and to impart problem solving skills.

The faculty members adopt various student-centrinc methods for teaching to enhance the learning experience of students.

Experiential Learning:

- Science students are encouraged to perform experiments in labarotries to acquire practical knowledge.
- The students have access to computers with internet facility in the library.
- Students acquire competing skills through their participation in co-curricular and extra-curricular activities
- Students gained computer skills in CLP labs.

Participative learning:

- Group discussion, seminar, quiz and debates are conducted in the classes.
- The PG students are involved in completing their final year project works.
- Participate in webinars, seminars, workshops and various competitions.

Problem -Solving Skills:

- For the continuous internal assessment, the students are given assignments regularly which requires their problem-solving skills.
- Preparing for seminar and completing the final year project works of PG students also require problem-solving skills.

Project work allotted in the final semester of PG students involves experiential, participative learning and problem solving methods.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT-enabled tools including online resources for effective teaching and learning

There are ICT class rooms enabled with projector. The faculty members use various ICT enabled tools to enhance the quality of Teaching-learning process. The college has seminar hall in most of the departments. Also there is an auditorium with necessary facilities to celebrate functions like college day, sports day, etc. and to organize various seminars and conferences by the departments.

During pandemic period, online platforms such as Google meet, Google class room, Zoom, webex, etc, are used by the faculty members to conduct online classes. The required learning materials are posted in the google classrooms or in the class WhatsApp group. The students uploaded their assignments in the google classrooms or in their class WhatsApp group. The same platforms were also used for conducting internal and model examinations and for students seminar and presentation.

Online Webinars, faculty development programmes and online quiz programmes were organized by various departments in association with IQAC to enrich the knowledge of students and faculty members during pandemic period.

2.3.4 - Preparation and adherence to Academic Calendar and Teaching Plans by the institution

The academic calendar is prepared every year by a team comprising of the Principal, Bursar, Controller of Examinations, academic council and the college office. It serves as a source for providing general information about the college such as the profile of the college, details of the teaching faculty and support/office/technical staff, etc. It also serves as a blueprint for the effective planning and implementation of teaching and learning process by detailing the working days, internal tests, Model examination events and holidays. The teaching plans for the courses are formulated envisaging the portions to be covered before the internal tests. The Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) of the students comprises of the two internal tests, attendance, conduct of seminars and submission of assignments. The heads of the departments monitor the progress of each course and impress upon the faculty to deliver the course content as per the detailed teaching plans well within the time schedule.

2.5.3 - IT integration and reforms in the examination procedures and processes including Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) have brought in considerable improvement in the Examination Management System (EMS) of the Institution

During pandemic period, IT integration made in the examination procedures helped the students to stay safe and complete their courses. All the examination procedures are modified to ensure that the students can apply for the semester exams and pay their fee through online mode. The CoE office has implemented online payment of examination fee through the CC Avenue Gateway for November 2020 semester exams to avoid large crowds of students paying fees directly in cash under the pandemic conditions.

UPGRADATION OF SOFTWARES

The CoE office management software was upgraded so as to make it convenient for conducting examination and other administrative work. The CoE office has executed examination reforms such as Optical Mark Recognition (OMR) evaluation, Quick Response (QR) code feature and a new grading system which includes CGPA (Cumulative Grade Point Average) and WAM (Weighted Average Marks). The internal mark is based on the two internal tests, model examination, assignments, seminar and the attendance mark issued by the CoE office.

CONTINUOUS INTERNAL ASSESSMENT (CIA)

Each student must take two CIA tests during a semester in order to complete all courses. Internal marks are ascertained by taking into account attendance, assignments, test marks, and seminars. Internal Marks Register is fully formatted and signed by the staff who deals with the respective course.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes as evaluated by the institution

Department employs both direct and indirect methods of measuring attainment of the programme outcomes, the programme specific outcomes, and the course outcomes under each programme. All the UG and PG courses of the institution are following the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) since 2005. Under these systems, students' attainment of learning outcomes is constantly measured through Internal assessment procedures such as class tests, home assignments, seminar presentations, project work, laboratory work and computational assignments, and through External assessment procedures such as end semester examinations, and viva voce. The final grades are computed using a cumulative grading formula based on the credits earned by students in each course, and the total scores of their internal and external assessments.

The students attain the expected course outcome and the expected programme outcome if they got a minimum score of 30 marks out of 75 marks in the external examination and a total of 40 marks out of 100 marks including internal marks. The semester examination result are analyzed and approved in the (Passing Board) meeting which comprise of the Principal, the controller of examination, the assistant controller of examination and all the heads of the departments. Then the results are published in the CoE website. Also they are circulated among the students through the tutors of each class by the Head of the departments.

RESEARCH, INNOVATIONS AND EXTENSION

3.1 - Promotion of Research and Facilities

3.1.1 - The institution's research facilities are frequently updated and there is a well-defined policy

for promotion of research which is uploaded on the institutional website and implemented

Advancement of knowledge is the major outcome of Higher Education. Every year the facilities for Research is enhanced with the ultimate motive of creating a congenial atmosphere for the researchers. The research co-ordinator along with the committee members stream lines the research activities in all the departments. It helps in the mobilization of funds from the central and state government agencies such as DST,UGC,TNSCST to set up and enhance research laboratories for carrying out research activities.

The policy adopted for the promotion of research are as follows:

- To adopt the rules and regulations provided by the (parent) Bharathidasan University for the admissions and the functioning of M.Phil and PhD. Courses.
- To encourage the faculty and the research scholars to publish research articles in well-reputed journals like, scopus, web of science, UGC care listed journals.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT

6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of an effective leadership in tune with the vision and mission of the Institution

The college was started in the year 1965 by the donation of land from Thanthai Periyar E.V.Ramasamy.with a vision to provide higher education to the socially and economically weaker sections and to empower them to live with dignity and honour

The institution offers PG, M.Phil and Ph.D. courses in order to achieve the institution's mission of imparting knowledge and skills through higher education and enhancing employability competence of the students.

The institution is headed by the principal who runs the college with the rules and regulations provided by the government of Tamil Nadu for the administration of Government Arts College. The Principal leads the college through various committees like College council, Academic council, Finance committee and Governing council. The Principal is the head of the all the committees.

The administrative decisions are taken in the college council which are then passed onto the respective committees and faculty members for the effective implement of the decisions.

The academic council implement the decisions made by the board of studies in order to achieve the mission of the institution effectively. The board of studies carefully revises the syllabus so as to achieve the mission of developing student's individual personality and employability competence.

6.1.2 - Effective leadership is reflected in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management

The Principal is the head of the institution. All the academic and administrative activities are distributed to various committees in order to have a smooth and effective functioning of the college.

The Principal makes academic and administrative decisions through college council which consists of all the Head of the Departments. The decisions made in the college council are conveyed to all the faculty members through department meetings. Then they are conveyed to the students for the implementation of the decisions.

Student Alumni is a member of the board of studies of each department. Their suggestions are taken into account to modify the syllabus in order to fulfill their needs.

Each class is assigned with a faculty as a tutor who is the mentor of that class.

The college office superintendent helps the principal in all the administrative works of the college. The bursar and cashier are helpful in maintaining financial matters.

During pandemic period, the rules and regulations on admission and online classes were issued by the government and the director of collegiate education. They are then carried out by the principal through online mode of contact with all the faculty members.

7.3 - Institutional Distinctiveness

7.3.1 - Highlight the performance of the institution in an area distinct to its priority and thrust (within a maximum of 200 words)

The college aim of the college is to bring economically poor rural youth to the reachable heights. The institution strives to provide the adequate higher educational platform. The students are regularly monitored by the tutors. They are encouraged to participate in all the co-curricular and extra-curricular activities. During pandemic period, the college organized many online programmes to enrich the knowledge of the students which will help them to lead a socially and professionally successful life in this competitive world. The college encourages the faculty members to do research and publish papers in UGC care listed, scopus and web of science journals. Five departments received fund for the project from DST-FIST for a period of five years with effect from 2019-2020. The institution gives training to the students to get placement and to be an entrepreneur.

Part B

CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 - Curriculum Design and Development

1.1.1 - Curricula developed and implemented have relevance to the local, national, regional and global developmental needs which are reflected in Programme Outcomes (POs), Programme Specific Outcomes (PSOs) and Course Outcomes (COs) of the various Programmes offered by the Institution.

Curriculum design is the process of making curriculum that aligns with the goals, objectives, and learning. It is achieved by creating an entirely new curriculum or making changes to an existing one so as to meet the current requirement of students taking the course.

The Academic council and the Board of studies periodically revise, modify, revamp and update the syllabus according to the local, national, regional and global needs of the students.

Language papers are included in Part I and Part II of the under graduate curriculum to improve the communication skills of students. On the completion of Part III courses, the students acquire concrete knowledge of their core subject and two allied subjects. The additional skills needed to excel in competitive examinations of their core subject are included in Part IV of the curriculum of the UG students. The moral, social, environmental and gender issues are covered in the courses of Part V. On the successful completion of their course, the students become socially responsible citizens with necessary employability skills in their core subject.

By completing the project work in the post graduate programmes, the students develop their skills in planning, critical thinking, processing, analyzing ideas and techniques and developing them into beneficial conclusion.

2.2 - Catering to Student Diversity

2.2.1 - The institution assesses students' learning levels and organises special programmes for both slow and advanced learners.

The college conducts three assessment test every semester and the same is used for CIA (Continuous Internal Assessment). Performance of students based on the marks obtained by them is used to identify slow learners and advanced learners.

Special Programs for slow learners:

Slow learners are counselled by their class tutors and respective HODs. The hurdles that hinder them to excel in their field are identified and remedial measures are taken accordingly. Repeated tests and assignments are given to enhance their learning skills. Subject teachers give them specific care to improve their learning abilities and extra coaching is provided depending upon the cases.

Special Programs for advanced learners:

Advanced learners are encouraged by arranging guest and invited lectures to expand their horizon. They are advised suitably to prepare them to get into institutions of national eminence. Coaching in career guidance is also provided to them. Students are coached to appear for service commission examination and special emphasis is given to become entrepreneurs. Toppers of each class and the university rank holders are awarded with certificates and prizes in the college day function. The college library awards Best Library user award best each year to motivate the reading habit of the students.

2.3 - Teaching- Learning Process

2.3.1 - Student-centric methods such as experiential learning, participative learning and problem-solving methodologies are used for enhancing learning experiences:

In order to ensure learning as a pleasant experience, students are encouraged to take active participation in every single pace of teaching. Discussions are encouraged during class hours. students feedback is obtained to ensure their participation in farming the curriculum itself. While every lab exercise is a hands on session for them they are encouraged to take up mini Projects, Projects, Participate in seminars, conferences, workshops, etc. for experimental learning and to impart problem solving skills.

The faculty members adopt various student-centrinc methods for teaching to enhance the learning experience of students.

Experiential Learning:

- Science students are encouraged to perform experiments in labarotries to acquire practical knowledge.
- The students have access to computers with internet facility in the library.
- Students acquire competing skills through their participation in co-curricular and extra-curricular activities
- Students gained computer skills in CLP labs.

Participative learning:

- Group discussion, seminar, quiz and debates are conducted in the classes.
- The PG students are involved in completing their final year project works.
- Participate in webinars, seminars, workshops and various competitions.

Problem -Solving Skills:

- For the continuous internal assessment, the students are given assignments regularly which requires their problem-solving skills.
- Preparing for seminar and completing the final year project works of PG students also require problem-solving skills.

Project work allotted in the final semester of PG students involves experiential, participative learning and problem solving methods.

2.3.2 - Teachers use ICT-enabled tools including online resources for effective teaching and learning

There are ICT class rooms enabled with projector. The faculty members use various ICT enabled tools to enhance the quality of Teaching-learning process. The college has seminar hall in most of the departments. Also there is an auditorium with necessary facilities to celebrate functions like college day, sports day, etc. and to organize various seminars and conferences by the departments.

During pandemic period, online platforms such as Google meet, Google class room, Zoom, webex, etc, are used by the faculty members to conduct online classes. The required learning materials are posted in the google classrooms or in the class

WhatsApp group. The students uploaded their assignments in the google classrooms or in their class WhatsApp group. The same platforms were also used for conducting internal and model examinations and for students seminar and presentation.

Online Webinars, faculty development programmes and online quiz programmes were organized by various departments in association with IQAC to enrich the knowledge of students and faculty members during pandemic period.

2.3.4 - Preparation and adherence to Academic Calendar and Teaching Plans by the institution

The academic calendar is prepared every year by a team comprising of the Principal, Bursar, Controller of Examinations, academic council and the college office. It serves as a source for providing general information about the college such as the profile of the college, details of the teaching faculty and support/office/technical staff, etc. It also serves as a blueprint for the effective planning and implementation of teaching and learning process by detailing the working days, internal tests, Model examination events and holidays. The teaching plans for the courses are formulated envisaging the portions to be covered before the internal tests. The Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) of the students comprises of the two internal tests, attendance, conduct of seminars and submission of assignments. The heads of the departments monitor the progress of each course and impress upon the faculty to deliver the course content as per the detailed teaching plans well within the time schedule.

2.5.3 - IT integration and reforms in the examination procedures and processes including Continuous Internal Assessment (CIA) have brought in considerable improvement in the Examination Management System (EMS) of the Institution

During pandemic period, IT integration made in the examination procedures helped the students to stay safe and complete their courses. All the examination procedures are modified to ensure that the students can apply for the semester exams and pay their fee through online mode. The CoE office has implemented online payment of examination fee through the CC Avenue Gateway for November 2020 semester exams to avoid large crowds of students paying fees directly in cash under the pandemic conditions.

UPGRADATION OF SOFTWARES

The CoE office management software was upgraded so as to make it convenient for conducting examination and other administrative work. The CoE office has executed examination reforms such as Optical Mark Recognition (OMR) evaluation, Quick Response (QR) code feature and a new grading system which includes CGPA (Cumulative Grade Point Average) and WAM (Weighted Average Marks). The internal mark is based on the two internal tests, model examination, assignments, seminar and the attendance mark issued by the CoE office.

CONTINUOUS INTERNAL ASSESSMENT (CIA)

Each student must take two CIA tests during a semester in order to complete all courses. Internal marks are ascertained by taking into account attendance, assignments, test marks, and seminars. Internal Marks Register is fully formatted and signed by the staff who deals with the respective course.

2.6.2 - Attainment of Programme Outcomes and Course Outcomes as evaluated by the institution

Department employs both direct and indirect methods of measuring attainment of the programme outcomes, the programme specific outcomes, and the course outcomes under each programme. All the UG and PG courses of the institution are following the Choice Based Credit System (CBCS) since 2005. Under these systems, students' attainment of learning outcomes is constantly measured through Internal assessment procedures such as class tests, home assignments, seminar presentations, project work, laboratory work and computational assignments, and through External assessment procedures such as end semester examinations, and viva voce. The final grades are computed using a cumulative grading formula based on the credits earned by students in each course, and the total scores of their internal and external assessments.

The students attain the expected course outcome and the expected programme outcome if they got a minimum score of 30 marks out of 75 marks in the external examination and a total of 40 marks out of 100 marks including internal marks. The semester examination result are analyzed and approved in the (Passing Board) meeting which comprise of the Principal, the controller of examination, the assistant controller of examination and all the heads of the departments. Then the results are published in the CoE website. Also they are circulated among the students through the tutors of each class by the Head of the departments.

RESEARCH, INNOVATIONS AND EXTENSION

3.1 - Promotion of Research and Facilities

3.1.1 - The institution's research facilities are frequently updated and there is a well-defined policy for promotion of research which is uploaded on the institutional website and implemented

Advancement of knowledge is the major outcome of Higher Education. Every year the facilities for Research is enhanced with the ultimate motive of creating a congenial atmosphere for the researchers. The research co-ordinator along with the committee members stream lines the research activities in all the departments. It helps in the mobilization of funds from the central and state government agencies such as DST,UGC,TNSCST to set up and enhance research laboratories for carrying out research activities.

The policy adopted for the promotion of research are as follows:

- To adopt the rules and regulations provided by the (parent) Bharathidasan University for the admissions and the functioning of M.Phil and PhD. Courses.
- To encourage the faculty and the research scholars to publish research articles in well-reputed journals like, scopus, web of science, UGC care listed journals.

- To encourage the faculty and the research scholars to present papers in national and international conferences.
- To encourage the faculty and the research scholars to participate in seminars, webinars, workshops, etc., to enrich their knowledge
- To motivate the faculty and the research scholars to apply for funded projects.
- To organize seminars, conferences and workshops to inculcate innovative and novel ideas for research.

GOVERNANCE, LEADERSHIP AND MANAGEMENT6.1 - Institutional Vision and Leadership

6.1.1 - The governance of the institution is reflective of an effective leadership in tune with the vision and mission of the Institution

The college was started in the year 1965 by the donation of land from Thanthai Periyar E.V.Ramasamy.with a vision to provide higher education to the socially and economically

weaker sections and to empower them to live with dignity and honour

The institution offers PG, M.Phil and Ph.D. courses in order to achieve the institution's mission of imparting knowledge and skills through higher education and enhancing employability competence of the students.

The institution is headed by the principal who runs the college with the rules and regulations provided by the government of Tamil Nadu for the administration of Government Arts College. The Principal leads the college through various committees like College council, Academic council, Finance committee and Governing council. The Principal is the head of the all the committees.

The administrative decisions are taken in the college council which are then passed onto the respective committees and faculty members for the effective implement of the decisions.

The academic council implement the decisions made by the board of studies in order to achieve the mission of the institution effectively. The board of studies carefully revises the syllabus so as to achieve the mission of developing student's individual personality and employability competence.

6.1.2 - Effective leadership is reflected in various institutional practices such as decentralization and participative management

The Principal is the head of the institution. All the academic and administrative activities are distributed to various committees in order to have a smooth and effective functioning of the college.

The Principal makes academic and administrative decisions through college council which consists of all the Head of the Departments. The decisions made in the college council are conveyed to all the faculty members through department meetings. Then they are conveyed to the students for the implementation of the decisions.

Student Alumni is a member of the board of studies of each department. Their suggestions are taken into account to modify the syllabus in order to fulfill their needs.

Each class is assigned with a faculty as a tutor who is the mentor of that class.

The college office superintendent helps the principal in all the administrative works of the college. The bursar and cashier are helpful in maintaining financial matters.

During pandemic period, the rules and regulations on admission and online classes were issued by the government and the director of collegiate education. They are then carried out by the principal through online mode of contact with all the faculty members.
